

Montréal Canada - 8-9 April 2015

World Summit Rural Generalist Medicine

Moving Forward Together – Wednesday April 8th Morning – Beyond Cairns

07:00-08:00	Breakfast And Registration
08:00-08:15	Welcome And Overview Of Goals Of The Summit Dr. Braam de Klerk Society of Rural Physicians of Canada
08:15-08:30	Rural Generalist Medicine In Canada To Be Confirmed
08:30-09:00	The Cairns Consensus Statement On Rural Generalist Medicine — Overview and Progress Professor Richard Murray Australian College of Rural and Remote Medicine Recognition of Rural Generalist Medicine within healthcare systems as a distinct scope of medical practice that is essential for effective rural healthcare
09:00-09:30	Report from the Advancing Rural Family Medicine Taskforce Dr. Trina Larsen Soles & Dr. Ruth Wilson Producing the Rural Generalist
09:30-10:00	Successes In Low Resource Countries Dr. Suwit Wibulpolprasert & Dr. Lawrence Teariki Puni Report on successful strategies used in low resource settings
10:00-10:20	Break
10:20-10:45	Better Health For the Bush Professor Tarun Sen Gupta University of Queensland Report from Queensland Australia
10:45-11:15	Procedural Medicine and The Rural Generalist: Anaesthesiology, Operative Delivery and Surgery Dr. Stuart Iglesias & Dr. Bob Woollard
11:15-12:15	Regional Reports	Take-Aways from around the world <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • South America: Dr. Leonado Vieira Targa • Africa: Dr. Hoffie Conradie • Asia Pacific: Dr. Wanicha Chuenkongkaew • United States: Dr. Robert Wergin • New Zealand: Kati Blattner & James Reid

Montréal Canada - 8-9 April 2015

World Summit Rural Generalist Medicine

Moving Forward Together – Wednesday April 8th Afternoon – Meeting Community Needs-Working Together

12:15-13:15	Lunch
13:15-14:00	Asset Based Community Development Dr. Jill Konkin & Dr. Bob Woollard
14:00-14:30	Rural Proofing Dr. David Schmitz
	The IRH was commissioned by the Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs (DEFRA) to develop a new Rural Proofing for Health Toolkit to provide a source of information and good practice about the issues surrounding health service delivery in rural areas.
14:30-15:15	Training Generalists By Foreign Exchanges And Capacity Building Dr. James Reid with others
	Value of the international movement/exchange of trainees and the reciprocal benefits to both high and low resource situations.al areas.
15:15-15:45	Break
15:45-16:00	Rural Generalist Medicine And The Canadian Armed Forces Dr. Brad Eason
16:00-16:30	The View From Here: Canada Round Up
	Regional Reports -- Case based examples of Rural Generalist Medicine functioning or failing • Indigenous Health - Dr. Darlene Kitty • Privileging in BC - Dr. John Soles • Circumpolar Perspective - Dr. Sandy Macdonald
16:30-17:30	More On: Asset Based Community Development Jill Konkin & Bob Woollard	More On: Rural Proofing Tarun Sen Gupta & David Schmitz	More On: Island Training Kiki Maoate & Lachlan McIver	Certificate Of Added Competence And Rural Generalism
17:30-17:45	Tomorrow's News Today -- Wrap Up And Announcements For Day 2 Dr. Braam de Klerk
19:00-20:30	Reception For World Summit Participants

Montréal Canada - 8-9 April 2015

World Summit Rural Generalist Medicine

Training The Present and Future Generalist – Thursday April 9th Morning – Rural Teams To Meet Community Needs

07:00-07:40	Breakfast And Registration
07:40-07:50	Announcements And Day's Objectives Dr. Braam de Klerk
07:50-08:00	Collaborative Leadership Dr. Lucie Walters Australian College of Rural and Remote Medicine Video message from the president of the Australian College or Rural and Remote Medicine.
08:00-08:40	Rural Generalist Medicine and The Physician Team Dr. Keith MacLellan Shawville, Quebec
08:40-09:15	Building On Family Medicine Programs Dr. Roger Strasser Northern Ontario School of Medicine
09:15-09:45	Generalist Training For Specialists Dr. Kenneth Harris The Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons representative
10:00-10:30	Pipeline or Life Cycle Journey to Rural Generalist Medicine? Dr. James Rourke Memorial University Newfoundland
10:30-11:00	Break
11:00-11:30	Rural Generalist Medicine – The Future Rural Generalist Dr. Chelsey Ricketts and Dr. Patrick Lafleche and Dr. Amber Bacenas
11:30-12:30	More On: Plain Speaking — The Benefits and Risks In Defining 'Generalism' Dr. Jill Konkin & Dr. James Rourke	More On: The Rural Physician Team Dr. Keith MacLellan & Professor Tarun Sen Gupta	More On: How Does Undergraduate Medical Education Need To Change? Dr. Karl Stobbe & Dr. David Campbell	MOC / CPD For The Rural Generalist Dr. Jaimie Meuser, Dr. Ray Markham, Dr. Kirstie Overhill, Dr. Lachlan McIver, Dr. Jel Coward & Dr. Rebecca Lindley

Montréal Canada - 8-9 April 2015

World Summit Rural Generalist Medicine

Training The Present and Future Generalist – Thursday April 9th Afternoon – Research In Support of Generalism

12:30-13:00	Status Of Health Care Health System Change - Time For Generalism and Rural Generalist Medicine Dr. Michael Jong & Dr. Roger Strasser Principles to guide health care transformationngs will be described. Discussion will highlight principles of curriculum and format that could guide how programmers develop, and how participants choose, programs in the future
13:00-13:30	Evidence For Enhanced Surgical Services Provided by Generalists Dr. Stuart Iglesias with others
13:30-14:30	Lunch
14:30-15:00	The Evidence Underpinning Privileging And Maintenance of Competency – Panel Discussion Professor Richard Murray and Dr. Stuart Iglesias with others This session will built around the privileging initiative in British Columbia. We will examine the evidence around 'numbers of procedures to maintain competency' through a panel presentation and discussion.
15:00-15:30	Ten Questions That Matter To Advocating For Rural Generalist Medicine Dr. Stefan Grzybowski Rural Health Research Network of BC Applied Policy Review – Objective: Generate Rural Research Questions Development of a strategic research agenda to advance Rural Generalist Medicine, prioritising the following topic areas: • Efficient use of healthcare resources and Rural Generalist Medicine; • Quality and safety and Rural Generalist Medicine; and • Effective models of training and Rural Generalist Medicine.
15:30-16:00	Break
16:00-16:30	Poster Presentations - Oral Presentations
16:30-17:15	What's Next? Practical Steps To Advanced Rural Generalist Medicine Dr. Braam de Klerk & Professor Richard Murray • Working on an agreement to develop an international 'toolkit' to advance Rural Generalist Medicine, a toolkit for governments, rural physicians, health departments etc. • How the concept of RGM might be advanced through international bodies such as WHO and World Bank work (around health workforce and universal coverage). • A strategic research agenda to build a coalition of researchers collaborating on priority topics.
17:30-18:10	Closing Session - A Physician's Journey With Dr. Roberta Bondar
18:10-19:30	Meet and Greet Reception - Summit And Rural & Remote